This isn't Early Access to get "community feedback", at best it's a way too early pre-alpha build that was released by accident. More likely it is another "give us all your money"-game that will never see proper development. Every promise this game has given is a joke, it might get close to some of the promises at some point, but probably not.

Do you want a open world MMO with a player controlled open world, you probably already know about Identity. This is to Identity what Burstfire is to Rainbow Six: Siege - just way too rushed out and not at all close to feeling playable.. This is the next big game,, Voice chat coming, if you buy it now lots of bug in city but buy it and this game are going to be the best its just a matter of time,, its going to be like SAMP san andrea online with voice chat and arma 3 altis life.. i am disappoint of this SCORES game. i see the screenshots of the soccer match. i am EXIT!!! WOW!!! SOCCER MOMMRPG!!!!??? WOW! I LOVE A FIFA GAME BUT NO ONE TO PLAY? sorry caps loke broke now i am fix i will edit rest of review later. ok, here is problems in number of 1 to 5 or (6)

1. this is not soccer games. this is shoot game with the sims.
2. soccer is team sport. where is team? not in this games!!!!!!!!!!!!
3. too much gubn. i am insult by trying to shoot man during soccer. have true match and see how much your power can defeat him?
4. ok now the time has come for the true review.

i am playing this with expectation of GTA ONLINE SAN ANDREA #3. BUT it says soccer??? and where is my friends? i have 16 friend who own this game and none of them i can find.

5. where is beach?

(6). dwarf army base is very offense. my smallest brother is part young dwarf and he cry when he see this small towers.

that is my review. this is bad game but maybe the good one in 5 year of training. if it become next fifa 2020 MAYBEEEEEE i will try it. but please remove gun.

thank you for time. i am now playing GTA ONLINE SAN ANDREA goodnight. Although still in Early Access, this game has many exciting and revolutionary features woven into its rich fabric of gaming tapestry, including:

- * Your character can walk... OR run!!!
- * Sometimes you can enter vehicles
- * You can choose a job. You cannot actually work or do anything during the job, but you can choose one
- * Your apartment is very nice
- * Sometimes some menus work
- * You can play soccer (that's American for "football") if somehow other people buy this game for some unknown reason
- * The hat selection includes "hair" or "fingerless gloves"
- * The physics are completely realistic. I didn't once float up into the sky at several million miles per hour... just like real life!
- * You dont have to worry about bothersome "other players" because the city is gigantic and oh there are none
- * There's a bench and a very large woman sits on it and she may be a giant
- * Your car catches fire if a woman touches it (Men's Rights!)

I'm sure additional features will eventually be added, such as "things you can do" or "stuff that exists" or "anything," but that is what Steam's glorious Early Access is for! Well either that or for the developer to take your money and run, one of the two.. me encanta! Gracias! Bueno el juego. Had a blast playing football. The graphics are great while playing soccer but I feel like the entire city needs a overhaul. More content is very badly needed. But I get the city flare in some parts of the city. In other parts I feel lost so maybe decreasing the size of the world and marker points with info would be helpful. I can see alot of parts where time and dedication were put into this early access title. Looking forward to the next update. <https://youtu.be/nrvBr6Y3djM>

WOW... This is rough, has potential but rough. Right now there are lots of bugs, and feels rather clunky. I barley got to try anything before I bugged out and fell through the map. I love role playing games and this could maybe one day get there. As of now I would not recommend this unless you really want to support the developers.. still alpha in 2018. Don't we all just love a cinematic gaming experience? 6fps is sooo nice. Even the hud is blurred so you can't see anything, amazing! If you want to feel like a console peasant you should buy this game!

However, if you do have common sense you do NOT buy this game until they have fixed it. This game is unplayable at it's current state. Website games is better made than this.

Please re-do this game in Unreal Engine or something and this could be gold!

Football is spicy like a meatball City is\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665. This 'game' is why steam has the return policy they do. If you were wondering if this game is truly as bad as some of the reviews and YT videos made it out to be, rest assured it absolutely is.

From the ridiculously awkward and cumbersome registration process, to the comedic dated character creation, to the painful game-play no one in good conscious could recommend this game for anything other than a few laughs. Very few.

Ignoring for a moment that its an MMO you will absolutely be playing alone, the game-play and graphics are so unbearably dated (think 2000 if your being really generous) as to be all but unplayable.

The truth is this game is abandoned and the 'developers' have clearly moved on. This isn't speculation a quick visit to their website shows a new title in the works, Last Global War. Contrary to the developers protestations that they're a very small group who will absolutely be finishing this game. I suppose we'll see but without any updates so far this year, you'd have to be pretty naive to believe that.

Really at its core this title and these 'developers' are spectacular only at being the poster-children for Steam desperately needing to revamp the QVA for their 'Early Access' program. And that honestly is about the nicest thing i can thing to say about this patch of malformed 1's & 0's.. I am so glad I bought this game! Yes, it needs some TLC but you can clearly see the potential. I had a great time exploring everything....there's SO MUCH to see. I can see where the team is hoping to go with this game. Soccer was amazing I'm going to suggest it to my friends so that we can play together.. Loose the gang wars it sucks. Football is sick though. The soccer is really cool.....everything else not so much.....II think u should concentrate more on the soccer The only reason I would recommend this is because the soccer is so good.
